MUCH WANTED MAN IN MARYLAND IS SUPPOSED TO BE UNDER ARREST HERE

Woodbine Sheriff Will Bring Requisition Papers to Claim Colored Man

ANSWERS DESCRIPTION

Expected He Will be Taken Back to be Given Trial on Charge of Killing Clarence Faucett

Suspecting a negro, giving his name as John Davis, of being wanted for the murder of Clarence Faucett, in Maryland, Chief of Police C. W. Albright, after arresting the man over a week ago on a charge of assaulting a woman, has been quietly holding him pending investigations. This morning he received word from Sheriff Henry N. Miles, at Woodbine, Md., to keep the man under surveillance, and that he would come at once with requisition papers to claim him. It is thought that Davis is not the negro's true name, the charge of murder being lodged against Ollie E. Fisher.

Chief of Police Albright had his eyes on Davis for some time and when several days ago a colored woman known as Mrs. Johnston made information against him for alleged assault, decided to arrest him and hold him while investigating. He did this and upon inquiry from Sheriff Miles, learned that a man of the description of Davis was wanted charged with the Faucett murder. The negro was sent to jail at Washington, and has been held there since, not having paid the costs.

The arrest of Davis was made at the corner of Eleventh street and Lincoln avenue. He is supposed to have been running a disorderly house there. If Davis proves to be the desired man as thought Sheriff Miles will remove him to Maryland and he will be given a trial there. There is no reward offered.

Speers

William Morgan, who was stricken with pneumonia followed by typhoid fever, is doing as well as can be expected although he is far well at this writing, but it is hoped by his many friends that the worst is over.

Mrs. King Chalfant entertained the Ladies Aid Society on Wednesday afternoon. A large number of the Aid as well as a few visitors were present considering the bad day. After the business meeting was over a literary program was rendered followed by a ten cent lunch served by Mrs. Chalfant and Mrs. W. Dunkerly.

Mr. and Mrs. King Chalfant entertained on last Sunday a crowd of married folks, who were by the way intimate friends prior to their marriages. All the boys, as well as the girls, were raised within a radius of two miles and were all married with one exception within eight months. We say they were married people, which was very much in evidence by the chattering of little tongues. At one time ten composed the crowd, but on Sunday twenty gathered around the table. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hughes and daughter of Charleroi, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mancha and children of Twilight, Mr. and Mrs. James Spbar and children of Twilight, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Jackman and son of Long Branch were out-of-town guests.

Their lineup is as follows: J. Guder, or Willis catcher; Hartland, Hogg or Patterson, pitchers; Rivers or M. Haywood shortstop; Kennedy, or Mure, first base; Nicholas, second base; P. Haywood, third base; A. Haywood, left field; Carroll or Mure, middle field; F. Guder or Slater, right field.

VALUABLES DISAPPEAR WITH MAN

Police Making Search For Alleged Room Thief

MASONIC EMBLEM TAKEN

The police of Charleroi and surrounding towns are looking for a middle aged man about 40 years old, whose name is unknown, supposed to have stolen a suit of clothes, a Masonic emblem and diamond and other valuables from the room of H. W. Stevens, at the home of T. F. Lindsay, 513 Lincoln avenue. After spending three days in Charleroi the man disappeared yesterday, and with him the articles from Mr. Stevens' room.

A few days ago the man came to Charleroi and inquired at the Lindsay home for a room, saying he was a building contractor who had some work to do here. He said that two partners were coming later. He was given a room but his name was not learned. Yesterday morning he informed Mrs. Lindsay that his two partners could not come until Monday and stated that he was going away in the meantime. Not until Stevens returned home last night and went to his room was the discovery made that a number of articles were missing, the most valuable of which is a Masonic emblem, with a diamond in the center, and bearing the monogram "H. W. S." Other articles taken besides this emblem and a good suit of clothes were a silver watch, gold chain and charm. The supposed thief is described as a man about 5 feet 6 inches tall, weighing about 140 pounds. He had rather a florid face and black hair and mustache. He wore a black suit and overcoat.

CONDITION SERIOUS BUT RECOVERY IS ASSURED

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. White of 610 Fifth street, is suffering from severe burns sustained from an accident last Thursday evening. She will recover. The girl is about five years old. While playing about a gas stove early in the evening, her clothing caught fire and in a twinkling she was enveloped in flames. Her screams brought prompt aid, and the blaze was extinguished. Dr. N. W. Patton was called. The worst burns are about the limbs the right side of the body and her chest. She was burned some about the neck and chin, but not so as to disfigure her. Mr. White, her father, is a Plate Glass night foreman

SENTIMENT FAVORABLE FOR "BILLY" SUNDAY

People of This Community Anxious to Have Noted Evangelist Come as Soon as Possible

ASKS ABOUT FEELING IN CHARLEROI

The sentiment of church people, of Monessen, Charleroi, Belle Vernon and Webster in the movement to secure Evangelist "Billy" Sunday to hold revival meetings in this vicinity is being tested, and Sunday will be posted from time to time on the results, so that he can give a definite answer to the invitation to come here. There is great interest manifested and the sentiment is most favorable.

Sunday is rather anxious to get "a whack at the devil" in this community, as he expressed it. He has set a date for McKeesport meetings in January or February of next year, but it is hoped to get him here in advance of that time.

When the Monessen committee interviewed the noted evangelist, he asked them about Charleroi and told them to see if the people there were favorable to his coming. He said that he was intimately acquainted with Gov. Tener. Sunday has accepted an invitation to hold meetings at Tarentum some time within the next two years.

In feeling for sentiment, the committee in charge of the matter have found so far that the citizen generally in the affected community are in favor of the movement.

MAN FOUND IN UNCONSCIOUS STATE DIES OF PARALYSIS AND EXPOSURE

Luke Kelly Expires at Monessen-Charleroi Hospital Short Time After Being Removed There

Luke Kelly, nearly 70 years old, a dead from exposure, it is said, and is stroke of paralysis. Kelly died yesterday at the Monessen Charleroi hospital, having been taken there by the police.

Kelly was found in an old shed on Long alley, between Sixth and Seventh streets in an unconscious condition. He had apparently been there for several hours. He was removed to the lockup and resuscitated and a physician called, who ordered the man taken to the hospital.

Kelly is survived by one son, John Kelly. The body was removed to the undertaking rooms of M. T. Crowley.

The funeral services will be held at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon at St. Jerome's church. Burial will be in Calvary cemetery.

"GRAUSTARK" AT COYLE TONIGHT

Geo. D. Baker's adaptation of George Barr McCutcheon's popular novel "Graustark," will be the attraction at the Coyle Theatre tonight. "Graustark," is entitled to rank high among the romantic dramas of the present day stage. It is replete with a strong human interest, is full of life and spirit, and the comedy element is much and enjoyably in evidence. The hero of the play, Grenfall Lorry, is a rich young American who pursues a mysterious "Miss Guggenlocker" across two continents to her home in the little country of Graustark, where the attractive young lady is a reigning Princess. The Princess is about to marry a man for whom she has a natural antipathy, in order to free her country from a burdensome and oppressive debt. The rich American, however, after having saved the life of the young ruler, comes to the rescue and saves the nation from bankruptcy and insolvency by paying the debt. As a matter of course the accommodating American is enabled to induce the Princess to banish all ancestral prejudices and to become his wife.

The company presenting this romantic play has been engaged by Messrs. Baker and Castle from the ranks of the very best people in the profession, and the scenery and equipment it has been acknowledged by press and public to be the best ever seen in the theatres the entire season.

He has great distances to cover and uses a motor cycle, the fine improved road making motor cycling a great pleasure.

TOWNSHIPS MAY BE IN FIRST CLASS

Two in County Thought to Come Under Classification

ARE CARROLL AND ALLEN

From the publication of returns of the 18th census for minor civil divisions, there are two townships and possibly three in Washington county that are of the first class.

In 1899 the Legislature enacted a law classifying townships according to population--those having a population of 300 to the square mile to be in the first class and all others in the second class.

While no accurate figures as to the area of the townships are available, it seems almost certain that both Allen and Carroll townships are entitiled to recognition as first class. East Pike Run may also be a first-class township.

Allen, which is a comparatively small township, is compactly inhabited, and when it is considered that 1,677 persons constitute the population it seems that there are more than 300 to the square mile. Carroll township has an area of about 12 and 1-3 square miles and its population is 5,242. East Pike Run has a population of 3,408.

The government of first class townships differs considerably from that of the second class townships. Instead of electing supervisors they elect five commissioners, who have powers almost the same as those conferred upon councils in the boroughs.

The commissioners can grade, pave, curb and sewer the streets of villages in the township; provide for the laying of sidewalks in the villages or the building boardwalks along the public roads; employ policemen; plant shade trees along the streets; provide for lighting the streets and furnishing water; and have power to make contracts with public service corporations.

By an amendment to the law, adopted in 1909, the commissioners are required to ascertain whether any indications are comparatively dull time will be followed by prosperous period

NEW BUILDINGS PROMISED

Pennsylvania Railroad Station and St. Jerome's Church Among Structures To Be Constructed

Although there is some dullness in the Monongahela valley at the present time, owing to the partial suspension of a number of mines, better times are promised with the opening up of spring. Thousands of laborers will be given work by the railroads within the next few weeks, plans having just been completed by engineers for the spring and summer construction and repair work. By the middle of April large forces of trackmen will be in the field.

In Charleroi there promises to be more building this year than there has been any period for some years. The new Pennsylvania railroad station will be one of the principal structures to be put up and the new church of St. Jerome's congregation will be finished. In addition to this there is reason to believe that the new Charleroi Federal building will be started and possibly finished during 1911.

If matters can be arranged it is possible that the Macbeth-Evans-Glass company will construct an addition to their plant this year, and through this increase their working force. Other industries look for a prosperous time. The North Charleroi Brick company is one of the new industrial concerns to start up this spring.

Today is a general pay day along the valley. Directly in Charleroi the Macbeth-Evans company, the Plate Glass company, the Charleroi Coal works, the Walton Lumber company and the Charleroi Lumber company will pay. All Monessen mills pay today and many of the mines in the vicinity will disburse large sums.

of the townships come under the conditions for first class townships and if so, to properly designate them. This will probably be done by the commissioners of this county and if they find that any of the townships are first class they will proclaim the fact before the date of the next municipal election which comes in November at which the commissioners would be chosen.

The Pittsburg Plan

From Harrisburg comes the intelligence that the leaders have agreed upon a plan for a new city charter for Pittsburg. It appears that two elements are besieging the Legislature for a new city charter for the Smoky City. One of these is fathered by Mayor W. A. Magee, and has the backing of the political organization of the city. The other is backed by the Pittsburg Chamber of Commerce and the civic organizations, and is supported by the reformers of all classes. The latter is known as the
"Pittsburg Plan." Mayor Magee's scheme involves a comprehensive plan in city expansion and public improvements, while the "Pittsburg Plan" deals with civic matters and reforms in government. The latter plan is radical, and is a new departure in municipal government and control.
It embraces a city council of nine members elected at large, each to be paid a salary of $6,500 a year, who are to constitute a board of business managers for the city, the initiative, referendum and recall, and non-partisan ballot.

It is needless to say that the politicians of which Mayor Magee is at the head, are not enamored of the
"Pittsburg Plan," but at the same time Mr. Magee's plans for the material gre tness of Pittsburg ar not having smooth sailing. He cannot very well ignore the civic reform crowd, because the latter may have a majority of the voters if a show down is made, and in these insurgent times political fights are mighty uncertain, so a compromise is submitted. This is to the effect that the Magee people will accept the city council plan of nine members if the initiative, referendum, recall and non-partisan ballot are eliminated. It is

a new charter law enacted for Pittsburg.

Even the paid city council, elected at large, will be a big step in the way of municipal reform for Pittsburg. If this is inaugurated, the others will follow as a matter of course.

A Good Start

While it is too early yet to judge of the building operations that are in store for Charleroi, enough is in sight to make a marked improvement in the appearance and standing of the town. The new Catholic church and the new Pennsylvania Railroad station, which are to be built this year, will be valuable public assets to Charleroi.

Indications are also good for a brisk building season at North Charleroi. This is one of the best residence sections in this community, as it is convenient to the big industrial communities of both Charleroi and Monessen. One of the things that would promote both building and the real estate market would be a free bridge to Monessen. Our local Business Men's Association has this matter in hand, and while it will take some time to effect it, the time will ultimately come when no toll will be levied upon those who must cross the river and from their daily work.
This movement can be materially hastened by the co-operation of all,
and efficient work in the right direction will do more than sitting still and complaining.

thing he has stirred the liquor men

The Shortest Poem Made

Adam
Had 'em.

Capt. Richmond Hobson can at last afford to be happy; his war scare is not altogether founded on atmospheric conditions.

And so Jack Johnston is thinking of becoming an aviator. He's pretty much of an aviator now, air castles being alone considered.

Burbank says he is going to improve the strawberry, but mother beat him to it long ago, via the strawberry shortcake.

One good reason for not being a soldier is that it requires too hard work.

Men love their fun,
But they abhor
The morning after
The night before.

The chaplain of congress used to pray for that "wise" body once each day.
But now it's changed—Woe betide.

If they are as successful over in Italy in getting evidence against supposed Black Hand men as they are in this country, they will probably convict some one in the next thousand years or so.

Manonevers, not war, is now truthfully, it is said, declared to be the object of the United States army's visit to Texas. The "I told-youso's" shouldn't miss that golden opportunity.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

A prominent Pittsburg physician who began reading medicine with his father, a country physician in one of the up-State towns, tells how the latter once applied heroic treatment in a case of rheumatism that came under his care. The patient, a middle-aged man, came to the doctor for treatment for a stiff knee joint. The leg was about half drawn up, and could not be straightened. The patient had been afflicted with rheumatism for many years, and was in pretty bad shape constitutionally, but after a couple of months treatment showed signs of improvement, except the stiff knee. That baffled all treatment.

One day, when the patient was in the doctor's office for treatment he was requested by the latter to lie down on the sofa. Then the doctor, who weighed about 200 pounds, plunked himself down on the half drawn up leg, with the full force of his avoird-pois. The patient gave a yell that might have been heard a couple of blocks away, but the leg was straightened and the knee joint worked freely. After the effects of the heroic treatment had worn away the knee joint was good as ever.

"I had in mind to use a maul," said the old doctor, "but couldn't devise anything to break the force of the occussion, so I sat on the leg instead."

A member of the "Graustark" company which is at the Coyle Theatre tonight, tells the following story on Nat Goodwin, the Henry VIII of the theatrical profession:

"Goodwin was strolling down a country lane, snapping the heads off the wild flower with his cane, when he heard footsteps him. Turning he saw an escaped lunatic running towards him. Goodwin stepped aside, but the lunatic stepped aside also.
Goodwin quickened his pace, finally became convinced that the man was after him and broke into a run. The pursuer followed and the actor was in a panic. Exhausted he sank to the ground and breathed a prayer as the lunatic came upon him. Hovering for a second over the prostrate form, the lunatic tapped Goodwin lightly upon the shoulder and said:
"Tag, you're it!"

Fine Art of Letter Opening.
In Russia one letter in every ten passing through the post is opened by the authorities as a matter of course. Indeed, the postal authorities of every country have experts who have raised letter opening to a fine art. Some kinds of paper can be steamed open without leaving any traces, and this simple operation is finished by re-burnishing the flap with a bone instrument. In the case of a seal a matrix is taken by means of new bread before breaking the wax. When other methods fail the envelope is placed between pieces of wood with edge projecting one-twentieth of an inch. The edge of the envelope is first flattened, then roughened and finally slit open. Later a hair line of strong white gum is applied and the edges united under pressure.—London Chronicle.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL

Health is Worth Saving, and
Some Charleroi People Know How to Save it

Many Charleroi people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is a Charleroi citizen's recommendation.
Henry Debay, 626 Washington avenue, Charleroi, Pa., says: "My kidneys were sluggish and caused my back to become very lame. I did not sleep well and I was annoyed by a distressing kidney weakness. Finally I was led to use Doan's Kidney Pills and it was not long before I improved. Another member of my family has taken this preparation and has been greatly benefited. Doan's Kidney Pills are certainly a good kidney remedy."

MUCH WANTED MAN IN MARYLAND IS SUPPOSED TO BE UNDER ARREST HERE

BRIGHT INDUSTRIAL OUTLOOK FOR THE COMING SPRING AND SUMMER

Woodbine Sheriff Will Bring Requisition Papers to Claim Colored Man

ANSWERS DESCRIPTION

Expected He Will be Taken Back to be Given Trial on Charge of Killing Clarence Faucett

Suspecting a negro, giving his name as John Davis, of being wanted for the murder of Clarence Faucett, in Maryland, Chief of Police C. W. Albright, after arresting the man over a week ago on a charge of assaulting a woman, has been quietly holding him pending investigations. This morning he received word from Sheriff Henry N. Miles, at Woodbine, Md., to keep the man under surveillance, and that he would come at once with requisition papers to claim him. It is thought that Davis is not the negro's true name, the charge of murder being lodged against Ollie E. Fisher.

Chief of Police Albright had his eyes on Davis for some time and when several days ago a colored woman known as Mrs. Johnston made information against him for alleged assault, decided to arrest him and hold him while investigating. He did this and upon inquiry from Sheriff Miles, learned that a man of the description of Davis was wanted charged with the Faucett murder. The negro was sent to jail at Washington, and has been held there since, not having paid the costs.

The arrest of Davis was made at the corner of Eleventh street and Lincoln avenue. He is supposed to have been running a disorderly house there. If Davis proves to be the desired man as thought Sheriff Miles will remove him to Maryland and he will be given a trial there. There is no reward offered.

Speers

William Morgan, who was stricken with pneumonia followed by typhoid fever, is doing as well as can be expected although he is far well at this writing, but it is hoped by his many friends that the worst is over.

Mrs. King Chalfant entertained the Ladies Aid Society on Wednesday afternoon. A large number of the Aid as well as a few visitors were present considering the bad day. After the business meeting was over a literary program was rendered followed by a ten cent lunch served by Mrs. Chalfant and Mrs. W. Dunkerly.

Mr. and Mrs. King Chalfant entertained on last Sunday a crowd of married folks, who were by the way intimate friends prior to their marriages. All the boys, as well as the girls, were raised within a radius of two miles and were all married with one exception within eight months. We say they were married people, which was very much in evidence by the chattering of little tongues. At one time ten composed the crowd, but on Sunday twenty gathered around the table. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hughes and daughter of Charleroi, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mancha and children of Twilight, Mr. and Mrs. James Spbar and children of Twilight, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Jackman and son of Long Branch were out-of-town guests.

VALUABLES DISAPPEAR WITH MAN

Police Making Search For Alleged Room Thief

MASONIC EMBLEM TAKEN

The police of Charleroi and surrounding towns are looking for a middle aged man about 40 years old, whose name is unknown, supposed to have stolen a suit of clothes, a Masonic emblem and diamond and other valuables from the room of H. W. Stevens, at the home of T. F. Lindsey, 518 Lincoln avenue. After spending three days in Charleroi the man disappeared yesterday, and with him the articles from Mr. Stevens' room.

A few days ago the man came to Charleroi and inquired at the Lindsey home for a room, saying he was a building contractor who had some work to do here. He said that two partners were coming later. He was given a room but his name was not learned. Yesterday morning he informed Mrs. Lindsey that his two partners could not come until Monday and stated that he was going away in the meantime. Not until Stevens returned home last night and went to his room was the discovery made that a number of articles were missing, the most valuable of which is a Masonic emblem, with a diamond in the center, and bearing the monogram "H. W. S." Other articles taken besides this emblem and a gold suit of clothes were a silver watch, gold chain and charm. The supposed thief is described as a man about 5 feet 6 inches tall, weighing about 140 pounds. He had rather a florid face and black hair and mustache. He wore a black suit and overcoat.

"GRAUSTARK" AT COYLE TONIGHT

Geo. D. Baker's adaptation of George Barr McCutcheon's popular novel "Graustark," will be the attraction at the Coyle Theatre tonight. "Graustark," is entitled to rank high among the romantic dramas of the present day stage. It is replete with a strong human interest, is full of life and spirit, and the comedy element is much and enjoyably in evidence. The hero of the play, Grenfall Lorry, is a rich young American who pursues a mysterious "Miss Guggenlocker" across two continents to her home in the little country of Graustark, where the attractive young lady is a reigning Princess. The Princess is about to marry a man for whom she has a natural antipathy, in order to free her country from a burdensome and oppressive debt. The rich American, however, after having saved the life of the young ruler, comes to the rescue and saves the nation from bankruptcy and insolvency by paying the debt. As a matter of course the accommodating American is enabled to induce the Princess to banish all ancestral prejudices and to become his wife. The company presenting this romantic play has been engaged by Messrs. Baker and Castle from the ranks of the very best people in the profession, and the scenery and equipment has been acknowledged by press and public to be the best ever seen in the theatres the entire season.

TOWNSHIPS MAY BE IN FIRST CLASS

Two in County Thought to Come Under Classification

From the publication of returns of the 13th census for minor civil divisions there are two townships and possibly three in Washington county that are of the first class.

In 1899 the Legislature enacted a law classifying townships according to population--those having a population of 300 to the square mile to be in the first class and all others in the second class.

While no accurate figures as to the area of the townships are available, it seems almost certain that both Allen and Carroll townships are entitled to recognition as first class. East Pike Run may also be a first-class township.

Allen, which is a comparatively small township, is compactly inhabited, and when it is considered that 1,677 persons constitute the population it seems that there are more than 300 to the square mile. Carroll township has an area of about 12 and 1-8 square miles and its population is 5,242. East Pike Run has a population of 3,408.

The government of first class townships differs considerably from that of the second class townships. Instead of electing supervisors they elect five commissioners, who have powers almost the same as those conferred upon councils in the boroughs.

The commissioners can grade, pave, curb and sewer the streets of villages in the township; provide for the laying of sidewalks in the villages or the building boardwalks along the public roads, employ policemen; plant shade trees along the streets; provide for lighting the streets and furnishing water; and have power to make contracts with public service corporations.

By an amendment to the law, adopted in 1909, the commissioners are required to ascertain whether any

Indications are Comparatively Dull Time Will be Followed by Prosperous Period

Although there is some dullness in the Monongahela valley at the present time, owing to the partial suspension of a number of mines, better times are promised with the opening up of spring. Thousands of laborers will be given work by the railroads within the next few weeks, plans having just been completed by engineers for the spring and summer construction and repair work. By the middle of April large forces of trackmen will be in the field.

In Charleroi there promises to be more building this year than there has been any period for some years. The new Pennsylvania railroad station will be one of the principal structures to be put up and the new church of St. Jerome's congregation will be finished. In addition to this there is reason to believe that the new Charleroi Federal building will be started and possibly finished during 1911.

If matters can be arranged it is possible that the Macbeth-Evans-Glass company will construct an addition to their plant this year, and through this increase their working force. Other industries look for a prosperous time. The North Charleroi-Brick company is one of the new industrial concerns to start up this spring.

Today is a general pay day along the valley. Directly in Charleroi the Macbeth-Evans company, the Plate Glass company, the Charleroi Coal works, the Walton Lumber company and the Charleroi Lumber company will pay. All Monessen mills pay today and many of the mines in the vicinity will disburse large sums.

of the townships come under the conditions for first class townships and if so, to properly designate them. This will probably be done by the commissioners of this county and if they find that any of the townships are first class they will proclaim the fact before the date of the next municipal election which comes in November at which the commissioners would be chosen.

The Pittsburg Plan

From Harrisburg comes the intelligence that the leaders have agreed
upon a plan for a new city charter
for Pittsburg. It appears that two elements are besieging the Legislature for a new city charter for the
"Smoky City. One of these is fathered by Mayor W. A. Magee, and has the backing of the political organization
of the city. The other is backed by the Pittsburg Chamber of Commerce and the civic organizations, and is supported by the reformers of all classes. The latter is known as the
"Pittsburg Plan." Mayor Magee's
scheme involves a comprehensive plan
in city expansion and public improvements, while the "Pittsburg Plan," deals with civic matters and reforms
in government. The latter plan is radical, and is a new departure in municipal government and control.
It embraces a city council of nine
members elected at large, each to be paid a salary of $8,500 a year, who
are to constitute a board of business
managers for the city, the initiative,
referendum and recall, and non-partisan ballot.

It is needless to say that the
politicians of which Mayor Magee is at the head, are not enamored of the
"Pittsburg Plan," but at the same time Mr. Magee's plans for the material gre tness of Pittsburg ar-
not having smooth sailing. He cannot very well ignore the civic reform
crowd, because the latter may have a majority of the voters if a show down
is made, and in these insurgent times
political fights are mighty uncertain,
so a compromise is submitted. This is to the effect that the Magee
people will accept the city council

plan of nine members if the initiative, referendum, recall and non-partisan ballot are eliminated. It is
a new charter law enacted for Pittsburg.

Even the paid city council, elected
at large, will be a big step in the way of municipal reform for Pittsburg. If this is inaugurated, the others will follow as a matter of course.

A Good Start

While it is too early yet to judge of the building operations that are in store for Charleroi, enough is in sight
to make a marked improvement in
the appearance and standing of the town. The new Catholic church and the new Pennsylvania Railroad eta-tion, which are to be built this year, will be valuable public assets to Charleroi.

Indications are also good for a brick building season at North Charleroi. This is one of the best residence sections in this community, as it is convenient to the big industrial communities of both Charleroi and Monessen. One of the things that would promote both building and the real estate market would be a free
bridge to Monessen. Our local Business Men's Association has this matter in hand, and while it will take some time to effect it, the time will ultimately come when no toll will be levied upon those who must cross the river and from their daily work.
This movement can be materially
hastened by the co-operation of all,
and efficient work in the right direction will do more than sitting still
and complaining.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

A prominent Pittsburg physician
who began reading medicine with his father, a country physician in one of the up-State towns, tells how the
latter once applied heroic treatment in
a case of rheumatism that came under
his care. The patient, a middle-aged man, came to the doctor for treatment for a stiff knee joint. The leg was about half drawn up, and could not be straightened. The patient had been afflicted with rheumatism for many years, and was in pretty bad
shape constitutionally, but after a couple of months treatment showed
signs of improvement, except the
stiff knee. That baffled all treatment.

One day, when the patient was in the doctor's office for treatment he was
requested by the latter to lie down on the sofa. Then the doctor, who weighed about 200 pounds, plunked
himself down on the half drawn up leg, with the full force of his avoirdupois.

The patient gave a yell that might have been heard a couple of
blocks away, but the leg was straightened and the knee joint worked freely. After the effects of the heroic
treatment had worn away the knee
joint was good as ever.

"I had in mind to use a mail," said the old doctor, "but couldn't devise
anything to break the force of the concussion, so I sat on the leg instead."

A member of the "Graustark" company which is at the Coyle Theatre
tonight, tells the following story on Nat Goodwin, the Henry VIII of the
theatrical profession:

"Goodwin was strolling down a country lane, snapping the heads off
the wild flower with his cane, when he heard footsteps him. Turning he
saw an escaped lunatic running
towards him. Goodwin stepped aside, but the lunatic stepped aside also.
Goodwin quickened his pace, finally
became convinced that the man was
after him and broke into a run. The pursuer followed and the actor was in a panic. Exhausted he sank to
the ground and breathed a prayer as
the lunatic came upon him. Hovering for a second over the prostrate
form, the lunatic tapped Goodwin
lightly upon the shoulder and said:
"Teg, you're it!"

AMONG THE THEATRES

The Palace—Charleroi.

Comedy was a leading feature in the photoplay productions at the Palace Theatre this week. Among the leading films were "The Girl in the Film," the story of a camera fiend, "Oh, You Teacher," "Dr. Cupid," and the "The School Ma'am of Coyote county." The last named of these had a Bret Harte flavor of a mining camp in the Sierras and was a wholesome and breezy western comedy. "The Snake in the Grass," was a stirring melodrama, and there were others of a similar nature to give the thrills that are so attractive to the large audiences that nightly throng the Palace. A spotlight song, "The Sailor's Grave," was one of the classical productions by John Evans that delighted the music loving element of the audiences. Louis Brusa, in illustrated songs also had the usual number of new and attractive offerings.

The Coyle—Charleroi

Geo. D. Baker's adaption of Grace Hayward's dramatization of George Barr McCutcheon's novel "Graustark," is to be the attraction at the Coyle Theatre Saturday night, March 25.

The theme of "Graustark," is as well known as any of the novels of recent years, and the play follows closely Mr. McCutcheon's book for stage purposes. The dramatization is along romantic lines and there are numerous climaxes and situations, made more effective by presentation on the stage. The play is well constructed and acted with a dash and spirit looked for in all first class productions.

The locale of the play leads itself to beautiful scenic environments, all heightened by the costuming of the characters in the national dress of the country. The company presenting the play is an adequate one, all the members of same having been highly commended for their individual and ensemble efforts. As a dramatization of one of the popular American novels, "Graustark," is well worth seeing.

The Alvin—Pittsburg

Margaret Mayo's "Baby Mine," said to be the funniest play New York has ever seen is the attraction announced for the Alvin Theatre for the week commencing Monday, March 27. The heroine of "Baby Mine" is a flippant little woman, played by Marguerite Clark. Miss Clark, who plays the leading part, has so tried her indulgent husband that in a fit of jealousy, he deserts her. To win him back, at the suggestion of a friend, she wires her husband that his fondest hope has been realized, and that he is now a father and she proceeds to obtain a baby from the hospital. The husband returns before the arrival of the baby, and in the subsequent complications, not one baby but twins, and finally triplets are foisted on the credulous parent. The situation is cleared up, when the real parents insist on the return of their children, and the frivolous little woman tells the truth at last. The farce is entrusted to an excellent group of players. "Baby Mine" holds the record for New York runs, and has played continuously for nearly two years. This will be the first opportunity Pittsburg has had to see the latest play from the pen of Margaret Mayo.

New Duquesne—Pittsburg.

One of the most famous plays in the history of the American stage, Bartley Campbell's celebrated Western drama, "My Partner," is to be given a highly interesting revival by the Harry Davis Stock players at the Duquesne Theatre next week. The plot of the play deals with the betrayal of a Western girl by one or two partners who have shared the joys and sorrows of their gold digging adventures together. The guilty lover is soon after found murdered in a most startling and thrilling manner in the miners cabin and circumstantial evidence seems to fasten the crime upon his partner Joe Saunders who has quarreled with his chum over his ruin of the girl they have both adored. An exciting murder scene, a series of mysterious happenings, a trial by Judge Lynch with intensely dramatic suspense and a number of deeply pathetic love scenes serve to hold the audience in the powerful grip of this drama of rough Western life from its very start to finish. Abundant comedy ripples through the various scenes of its four acts nevertheless. Mary Hall will be the betrayed girl, Mary Brandon, Albin Morrison will enact the Louis Aldric role of Joe Saunders, and Ralph Remley will be Wing Lee.

Truly Answered.

Boats trading in the Medway in former years rejoiced in rather curious names and the following was one of the many amusing incidents resulting from this:

A boat named 'What's That to You' passing a lockyard at nighttime was hailed as usual by the coast guard-man. "Boat ahoy! Your captain's name?" "Captain X." "And what are you laden with?" "Coal." "Where bound for?" "Chatham." "Ship's name?" "What's That to You?" "I asked you the name of the ship." "What's That to You?"

"You shall be reported for your insolence," roared the coast guard-man. Again he put the question, and, receiving the same reply, the boat was commanded to remain where she was. In the morning two boats were seen keeping guard. The officials, as they boarded the vessel with full authority to seize the offenders, observed for the first time the name painted in large letters. Amid the laughter and jeers of the crew of the 'What's That to You?' they pulled moodily away.—London Telegraph.

Political Passions of 1844.

There were elements of picturesqueness and drama in the politics of the before the war time which are lacking nowadays. Marlon Harland tells in her autobiography of a Whig rally which makes the political meetings of today seem tame, cut and dried affairs. It was in 1844, the year of Clay's defeat, and feeling ran high. At that particular time John Tyler was perhaps the most unpopular man in the Union. In the progress of his review of national affairs the orator at last came to the hated name. Instantly arose the majestic figure of Captain Cock, the local eccentric, clad in the scarlet English hunting coat he invariably wore. "The Lord have mercy upon the nation!" he cried, his voice solemn with wrath and sonorous with the mint juleps for which the Bell was noted. "Fellow citizens, I always cry to high heaven for mercy upon this country when John Tyler's name is mentioned. Amen and amen!"

Distilled Gold.

The investigations of a French chemist show that gold in the electric furnace boils freely at a temperature of 2,400 degrees C. In two or three minutes, it is said, from 100 to 150 grams of gold pass into the state of vapor. In condensing upon a cold body this golden vapor forms filiform masses and cubic crystals. At its temperature of ebullition gold dissolves a little carbon, which at the time of resolidification is deposited in the form of graphite. In an alloy of gold and copper, copper distills first. In an alloy of gold and tin, the tin distills more abundantly than the gold, and when a large quantity of these mixed vapors is taken the tin burns on contact with the oxygen of the air, forming oxide of tin, colored purple by a fine dust of condensed gold. This is one method of preparing the color known as "purple of Cassius."—Harper's Weekly.

The Gullible Public.

Two boulevardiers of Paris tell how they proved the gullibility of the public. They bet a friend 1,000 francs that by inserting three advertisements of three lines each in papers in the course of a week they would receive 500 francs without giving any explanation or making any promise to the senders.

On a Saturday the following advertisement appeared:

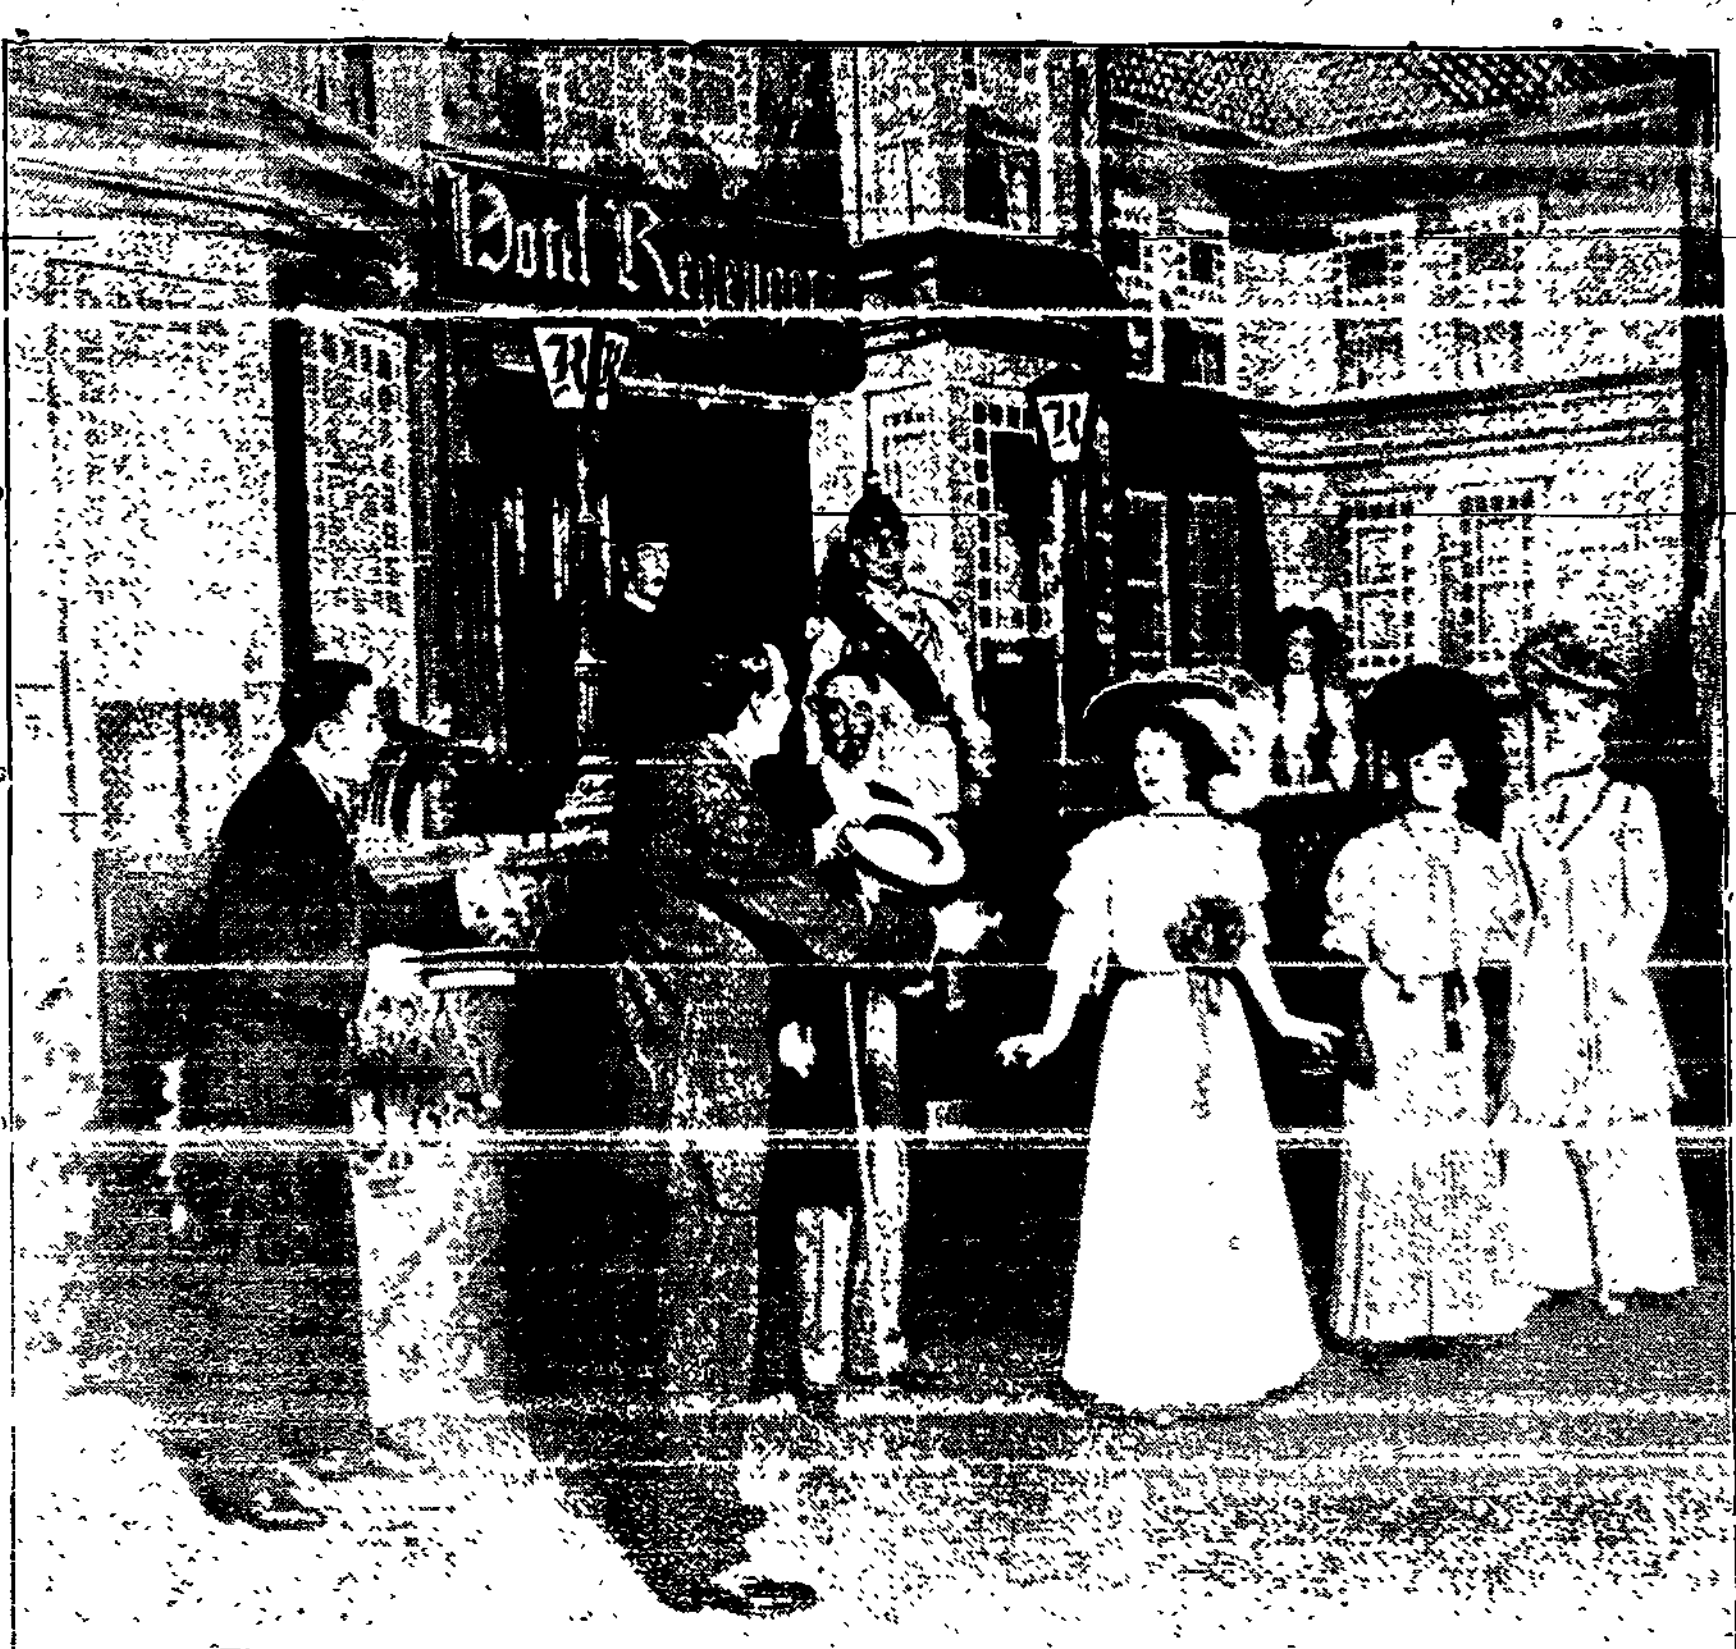

"Intelligent persons will send 5 francs to such an address."

On the Wednesday the insertion ran: "Last possible day is Sunday. Send your 5 francs then, or refusal."

The third on the following Saturday was:

"All 5 francs posted after tomorrow will be inexorably refused."

By the Sunday morning seventy seven postal orders for 4 shillings each had come in, and the next morning eighty-two more arrived. The gullible public had sent in not 500 francs, but 795 francs in a week. Having proved their point and won their bet, the two boulevardiers naturally returned the postal orders to the ingenious senders.

English of Long Ago.

The King's English has changed as kings have come and gone, says the St. James' Gazette. Here is a passage from the record of a crowning of long ago: "The Cardinal, as Archbishop of Canterbury, showing the king to the people at the high parties of the said pulpit, shall say in this wise: 'Sirs, I here present Henry (true) and rightful, and undoubted heir to the crown and royal dignity of England with all things thereunto annexed and appertaining, elect, chosen and required by all three estates of the same land to take upon him the said coronure and royal dignity, whereupon ye shall understand that the daie is prefixed and appointed by the consecration, anointment and coronation of the said most excellent Prince Henry; will ye, sirs, at this time give your wiles and essences to the same consecration, anointment and coronation? Whereupon the people shall say, with a great voice, 'Ye, Ye. So be hit, King Henry! King Henry!'"

Weighing the Mayor.

A mayor, particularly an English mayor, is traditionally a man of weight and substance, but there is only one municipality that insists that his honor get on the public scales and prove it. Of the thousands of quaint and curious customs surviving in "the old country" this is perhaps one of the most odd. The mayor of High Wycombe has to be weighed on Nov. 9 of each year, inauguration day, and this custom has been observed for about six centuries. The mayor elect walks at the head of a procession consisting of the councilors, the beadle and the mace bearer. He is clad in cocked hat, silk stockings, blue coat and knee breeches. Upon reaching the town hall the mayor is placed upon the scales by the head constable, and a record of his avoirdupois is solemnly made in a book kept for this purpose.—Harper's Weekly.

Charity and Prudence.

The contradictions of life are many. An observant man remarked recently that he was prowling about a certain city square when he came upon a drinking fountain which bore two conflicting inscriptions.

One, the original inscription on the fountain, was from the Bible, "And whosoever will let him take the water of life freely."

Above this hung a placard, "Please do not waste the water."—Youth's Companion.

making their home in Charleroi.

John Hott, Mrs. Walter Jack, Mrs.

Fine Art of Letter Opening.
In Russia one letter in every ten passing through the post is opened by the authorities as a matter of course.
Indeed the postal authorities of every country have experts who have raised letter opening to a fine art. Some kinds of paper can be steamed open without leaving any traces, and this simple operation is finished by re-burnishing the flap with a bone instrument. In the case of a seal a matrix is taken by means of new bread before breaking the wax. When other methods fail the envelope is placed between pieces of wood with edge projecting one-twentieth of an inch. The edge of the envelope is first flattened, then roughened and finally slit open.
Later a hair line of strong white gum is applied and the edges united under pressure.—London Chronicle.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL

Health is Worth Saving, and
Some Charleroi People Know
How to Save it

Many Charleroi people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is a Charleroi citizen's recommendation.
Henry Debay, 626 Washington avenue, Charleroi, Pa., says: "My kidneys were sluggish and caused my back to become very lame. I did not sleep well and I was annoyed by a distressing kidney weakness. Finally I was led to use Doan's Kidney Pills and it was not long before I improved. Another member of my family has taken this preparation and has been greatly benefited.
Doan's Kidney Pills are certainly a good kidney remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
